The Valentine party given by the ladies of the Relief Corps at the Armory last night was a most enjoyable and successful affair.

When your watch or clock needs repairing, consult Frank Blethen, of the Carson Exchange block. Frank is a skillful workman and moderate in his charges.

The advertisement for the Carson Guard ball on the 22nd instant, appears in another column. The boys propose to allow nothing to stand in the way of making it a pronounced success.

It is generally regarded as almost impossible to make this a forty day session. The members are working as hard as they can, but the business is accumulating and the end is not yet in sight.

He Killed His Wife.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 14.—The case of Albert E. Wing, who killed his wife, the beautiful but depraved Marian Eaves Wing, in October last, is again on the docket of the Criminal Court this morning, and will proceed to trial. On New Year's Day, when Wing was arraigned, he informed the Judge that he intended to plead guilty, and wanted to go to the gallows as soon as possible, as he was tired of life, and to continue in jail would be simply torture.

The Judge, however, persuaded him that there might be a chance to escape death and induced him to consent to stand trial. It is said that there is only one other case known in this country where a man arraigned for a crime for which an conviction is punishable with the death penalty has voluntarily pleaded guilty and expressed a desire to go the scaffold.

Mistaken in the Man.

A story originated by Wells Drury, is going the rounds that Jernegan, one of the founders of the Territorial Enterprise, on his death bed left a legacy of curses on the paper and the State of Nevada. It was not Jernegan at all. It was Col. Jonathan Williams, his partner, who committed suicide in Pioche some time in the late seventies or early eighties. He had been editing a paper there in opposition to the Record. He was, we believe, discharged, and when he died he left a note cursing both papers and the State in which they were printed, and also a number of persons whom he named. Gazette.

Ho! For Reno.

On next Monday evening there will be a special train run to Reno to hear the famous humorist Bill Nye and his partner Barbank. Those who never heard Nye will miss a treat. He is simply a cyclone when it comes to entertaining an audience.

Tickets for the round trip including admission $2.50.

A Monster Appeal Transcript.

The transcript on appeal to the Supreme Court of California from the decision of Judge Hebbard in the Fox-Hale & Norcross suit, was filed Monday. The transcript is contained in six volumes of printed matter containing 2,565 pages.

To the Ladies.

I will be in Carson City at the Novelty Bazaar, Ormsby House block for three days, with a full line of samples of dry and fancy goods. The goods will be delivered to any part of the city free of charge to purchasers. I would like the ladies of Carson City to call and inspect the goods, as I am satisfied I have many things well worth their while to see.
